

Oliver Gal to Debut 'Chic Minimalism' Collection at High Point Market Spring 2025

Miami, FL March 2025 – Oliver Gal, renowned for its iconic and bespoke art pieces, is gearing up for the upcoming High Point Market, scheduled from April 26-30, 2025. The brand is set to introduce a series of innovative collections that promise to redefine contemporary luxury in home décor.

Among the forthcoming collections, the 'Chic Minimalism' series stands out, aiming to reimagine simplicity by infusing it with depth, contrast, and opulence. This collection blends clean lines with rich materials, silver leaf embellishments, and layered textures, creating statement pieces tailored for high-end clientele. Signature items include custom-cut acrylic gummy bears, which add a playful yet sophisticated touch, and layered 3D acrylics that bring depth and dimension to any space. Elegant neutrals further enhance the collection, with meticulously hand-embellished abstract, floral, and photography artworks designed to integrate seamlessly into luxury interiors.

The 'Chic Minimalism' collection exemplifies our dedication to elevating contemporary interior design, said Ana Sanchez Gal, CEO. Each piece is meticulously crafted to transform everyday spaces into bespoke sanctuaries of glamour and sophistication. By emphasizing luxury and artistic ingenuity, this collection ensures that minimalism transcends understatement, becoming truly unforgettable.

As part of the excitement at High Point Market, Oliver Gal is thrilled to welcome Rasheeda Gray of Gray Space Interiors, who will be hosting a Hotspot Tour on Sunday, April 27, at 11 AM at the Oliver Gal showroom, IHFC C365. This exclusive event offers a unique opportunity to explore Oliver Gal's artistry and gain insight into emerging trends in luxury home décor.

Be among the first to experience Oliver Gal's latest collections at High Point Market from April 26-30 and witness how the brand is redefining modern luxury.
