

JANUS et Cie®

NEW FOR 2025

The Cordella Collection

JANUS et Cie introduces Cordella, a charming collection of highly textural poufs available in a wide spectrum of sophisticated, inviting hues. Cordella's whimsical, organic silhouettes belie clever, weather-friendly designs built to endure, rain or shine.

The Cordella Lounge Chair is a molded, low slung, scoop-like form with a deep, relaxed pitch. The Grande Pouf Square and the Pouf Square are versatile pieces that may serve as seating, ottomans, or tables. Cordella is sculpted in firm yet comfortable reticulated foam, encased in quick drying, crocheted polypropylene fiber over a raincoat textile lining. This durable material composition is engineered for superior drainage, enhanced air circulation, and UV-resistance to withstand harsh exterior elements.
