

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quorum International to Host Meet-and-Greet with Nikki Chu at Fall High Point Market

“An Afternoon of Sculptural Illumination” gives Market attendees an opportunity to meet the acclaimed designer and experience her new lighting collection for Quorum

FORT WORTH, Texas (Oct. 5, 2026) — Quorum International will host acclaimed interior and product designer Nikki Chu for a special meet-and-greet during Fall High Point Market on Sunday, Oct. 18, from 2:30–5 p.m. in the Quorum International showroom, Suites at Market Square M1000A-B.

Titled “An Afternoon of Sculptural Illumination,” the event will give designers, retailers and other Market attendees an opportunity to meet Chu while experiencing the newly launched Nikki Chu x Quorum lighting collection in the showroom.

The eight-piece collaboration brings Chu’s distinctive design perspective to lighting, blending sculptural forms, clean architectural lines and layered materials with a modern luxury aesthetic. Glass, leather textures, and hammered metal details appear throughout the collection, creating lighting designed to make a strong visual statement in any interior.

During the afternoon, guests can explore the collection firsthand and connect with Chu to learn more about the inspiration and creative vision behind the collaboration.

Known for her eclectic, fashion-influenced approach to interiors and home furnishings, Chu draws inspiration from form, texture and layered design. Her collaboration with Quorum translates that point of view into lighting that balances artistic expression with functionality and versatility.

Meet Nikki Chu: An Afternoon of Sculptural Illumination

Sunday, Oct. 18 | 2:30–5 p.m.

Quorum International Showroom

Suites at Market Square | M1000A-B

The meet-and-greet follows Chu’s participation earlier that afternoon in “Making Your Mark: Minority Designers on Building a Career,” a panel discussion hosted by ANDMORE from 1–2 p.m. in The Suites at Market Square Seminar Room, T-1022.

Moderated by Chu, the panel will bring together accomplished minority interior designers for a candid conversation about building successful careers in the design industry. The discussion will explore challenges ranging from access to capital and building client trust to representation in design media and navigating professional networks, while also sharing the mentors, opportunities and turning points that have helped shape the panelists' careers.

Following the discussion, Market attendees are invited to continue the afternoon with Chu at the Quorum showroom beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The Nikki Chu x Quorum collection will also be on display throughout Fall High Point Market in the Quorum showroom.

About Quorum International

For more than 40 years, Quorum International has created lighting and ceiling fans that combine exceptional design, attention to detail and quality craftsmanship. Based in Fort Worth, Texas, Quorum offers a diverse range of lighting, fans and mirrors designed to transform spaces and elevate interiors. <https://quoruminternational.com/>

About Nikki Chu

Nikki Chu is an interior and product designer known for a bold, modern approach influenced by global patterns, fashion and art. Through Nikki Chu Home, she brings her distinctive aesthetic to interiors, furniture, textiles, home décor and brand collaborations, combining modern lines, graphic elements and layered textures to create elevated yet livable spaces.