Exclusive Book Signings

P. Gaye Tapp
Paolo Moschino & Philip Vergeylen

If you are like us, books about interior design and decorating, play a big part in your life as a resource and, as inspiration. At the April High Point Market, we welcome authors, P. Gaye Tapp, Paolo Moschino and Philip Vergeylen for exclusive book signings. Ms. Tapp has written an extraordinary book entitled, How They Decorated, Inspirations from Great Women of the Twentieth Century just released by Rizzoli. The book includes information and photos rarely seen and compiled in a way that is adroitly entertaining. This book is essential to anyone interested in design history. Gaye will be in the Currey showroom on Sunday, April 23rd from 3 to 5 PM. Books will be available for purchase.

London-based interior designers, Paolo Moschino and Philip Vergeylen, are as well-known in America as they are in Europe. Selected for the prestigious AD 100 and ELLE DECOR A-List, Paolo and Philip have three showrooms in London and a Design Studio which manages residential and commercial projects internationally. Their book published by Vendome Press, Signature Spaces, Well-Travelled Interiors, takes you on a journey into their world revealing design projects and inspirations from around the globe illustrated with lavish photography. Join us on Monday, April 24th from 3 to 5 PM. Meet the designers and purchase a book in the Currey High Point showroom.

Once again, we welcome Potterton Books from the UK. Potterton specializes in rare and vintage books from the world of design, architecture, and more. Potterton Pop-Up will be open each day of market. Books will be available for purchase.
